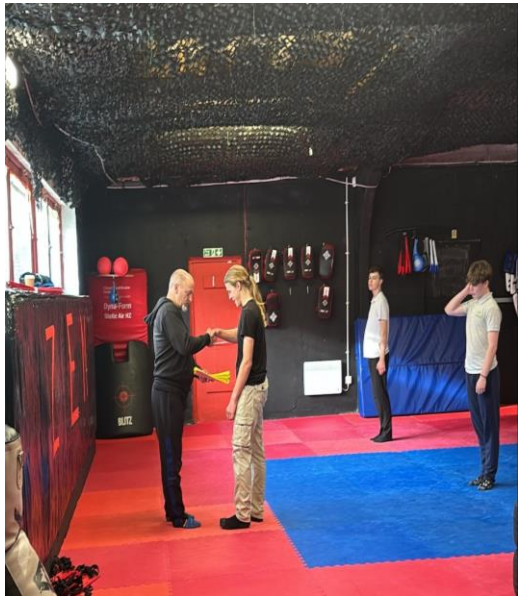
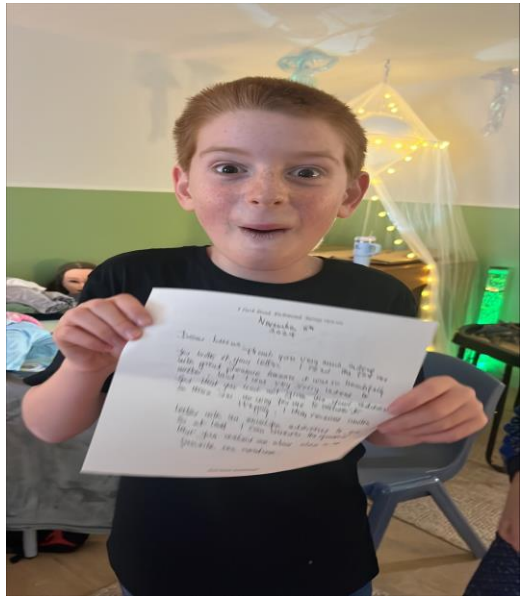
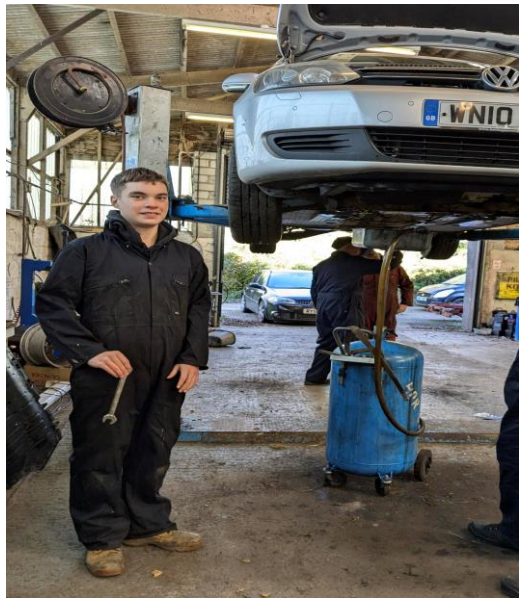
LIFE AT SCHOOL THIS WEEK!







Monday

Muay Thai Monday

A huge well done to Daniel and Ethan at Muay Thai this week. Daniel received his yellow belt and Ethan received his red belt.

Tuesday

Tuesday

Ewan had the opportunity to join his local villages remembrance Sunday parade. He did it alongside family friend Ian, who is ex-forces.

Wednesday

WOW Wednesday!

After writing to his hero David Attenborough last week, Lucas was delighted to receive a handwritten letter in response! David praised Lucas for his excellent writing and answered his question.

Thursday

Thursday

Rowan and Bailey have been working hard developing their mechanic skills at their weekly mechanics work experience.

Friday

Children in need!

We have had lots of celebrations for children in need! With staff and pupils arriving in their pjs, Pudsey t-shirts being designed and fun games being played together.

CURRICULUM INFORMATION

Lyra and Jack had a great time fishing together on Friday and manage to catch a few fish!

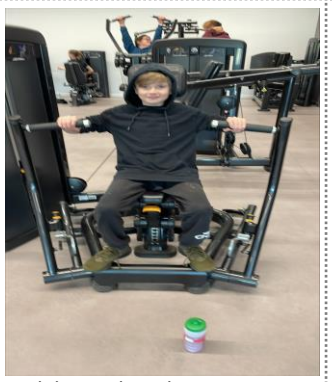
Elder class took their maths to a large scale this week and did collum addition on the playground.

Kenzie working hard on his collum addition during maths.

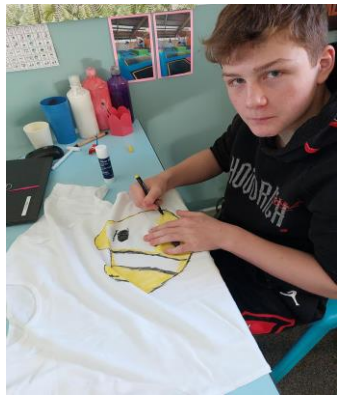
Hawthorn created some beautiful remembrance Sunday art by painting poppies on top of copies of the Flanders field poem.

Josh has been doing a great job at working towards his instructor's certificate at Muay Thai.

Kyle has been a kind friend this week helping Kylan learn how to create crystal art in their nurture time.

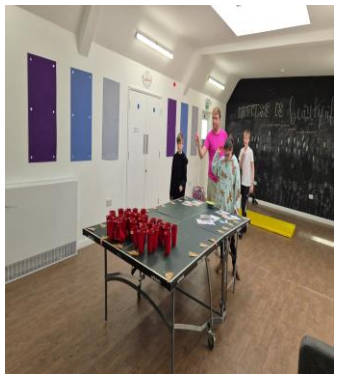


Addison has been working hard at the gym this week, learning about new machines and trying different exercises.



All the pupils were given a t-shirt to design for children in need, we have had lots of amazing creative designs.

Ewan has enjoyed his time at the farm this week and been focussing on the care of sheep.



Lots of fun has been had playing the various children in need themed games around the school.

Lots of great maths has been done by Mason this week. Looking at organising fractions.

Lucas

Lucas received a letter from David Attenborough!
