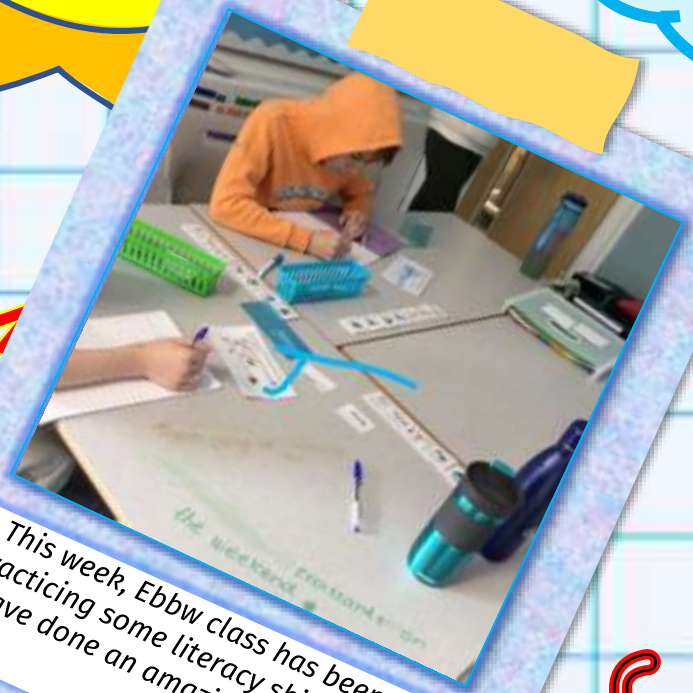
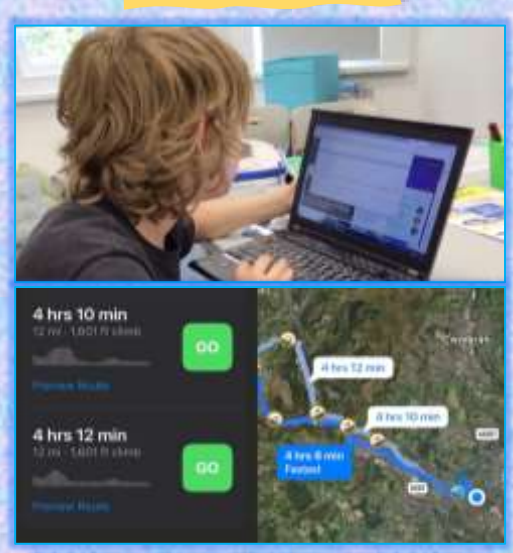
Newsletter October 2023



This week, Ebbw class has been busy practicing some literacy skills; and they have done an amazing job, well done Ebbw.

Joel from Cynon class has put all his strength this week in the gym. He has been exploring all kind of equipment and how to operate them safely. Joel is also learning about their benefits in our body. Well done!



Good job Theo, you concentrated well and gave amazing reasons again as to why it is important to know your school address and learn about the local area.

Why do we need to save our oceans? Josh from Neath class has done a remarkable job in raising awareness in the importance of recycling and explaining how this can be done. So, we can save our ocean friends.

Health and Wellbeing

What a way to end the school's day! Towy class organised a little karaoke competition today. The whole class took part, and they even had Rhu and Jerry from Ebbw class joining in on the fun.
