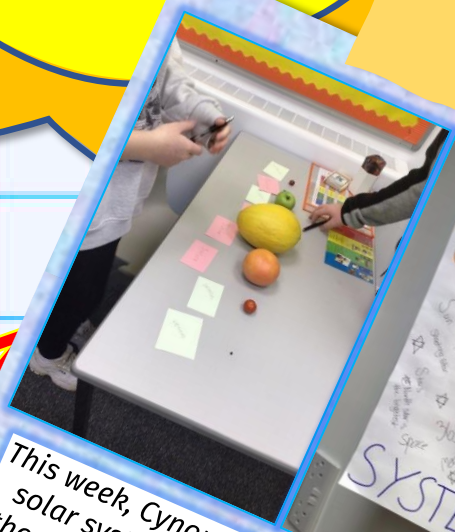
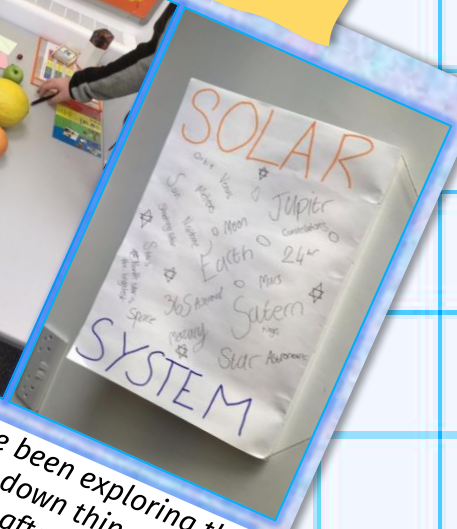
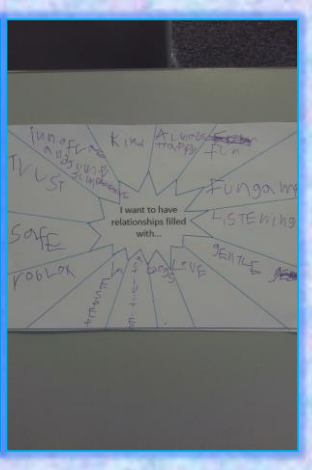
Newsletter January 2024

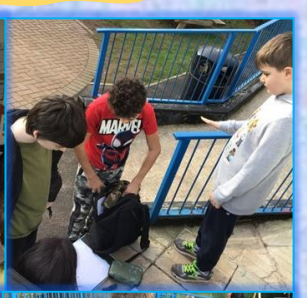




This week, Cynon have been exploring the solar system, writing down things that they already knew and after, sorting the fruits where they thought each planet was located and their name. After, they watched a presentation about the Solar system and re-ordered the planets, and they were so close!



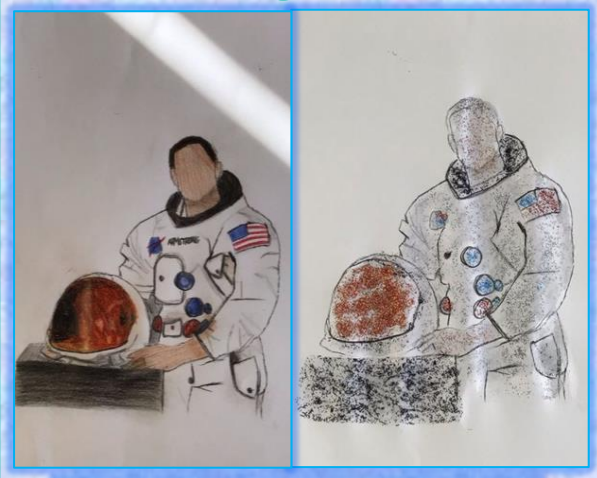
This week, Jerry from Ebbw class, has joined Neath class to complete a PSHE lesson, and produced a wonderful piece of work, making some good points and verbalised them.
Well done!



Towy class have been exploring survival skills, leaning how to attend to a minor injury using the first AID kit, how to build a shelter and also have taken part in Bear Grill's interactive show "You vs Wild".

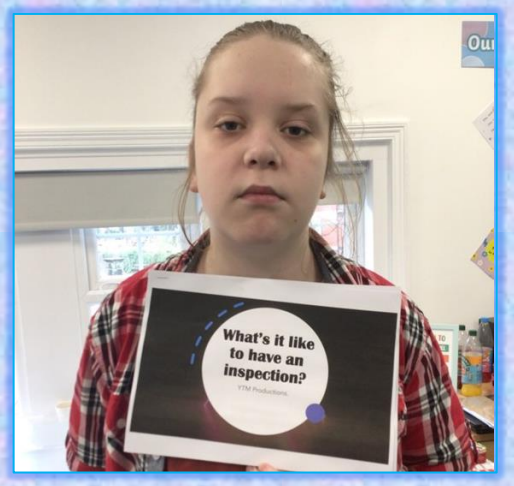
A day in the life at Ysgol Tŷ Monmouth

Creative Corner



Ruby form Cynon class has completed this amazing artwork of Neil Armstrong, choosing colouring pencils and glitter glue pens to recreate the picture using different mediums, and she was pleased with the result of both pictures. Well done!

Pupil Voice



During assembly, Toby has done an incredible job making a presentation, explaining to his peers what to expect during the inspection and familiarise themselves with the visitors, and he has done an amazing job at this.
Well Done!

Health and Wellbeing

Ethan has had a lovely time getting some fresh air during the walk to the local café, to have a chat and a well deserved Chocolate Milkshake.
