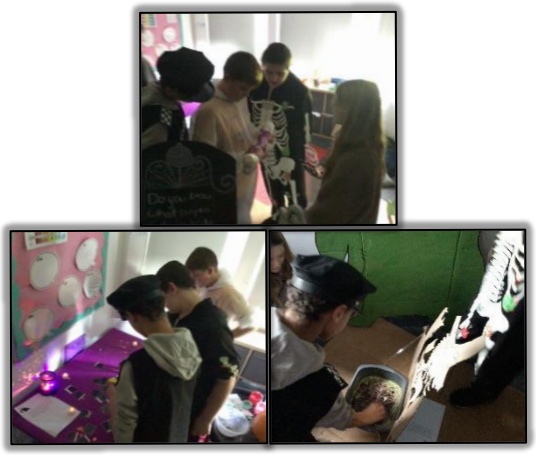
Halloween Edition

Today at the school, it has been a day filled with fun, with different escape rooms in each class. This is Towy's "Murder Mystery Escape Room" which pupils and team members enjoyed and completed it like true detectives. Well done Towy class for organizing such a fun activity.

This week Leo and Mahoney from Monnow class, have enjoyed pumpkin carving ready for Fridays big Halloween day, and they have done a fantastic job.

Well done both!



What a fantastic escape room Rhymney class has made!

"Mr Oogie Boogie Lair" all pupils and team members really enjoyed completing it and had a fantastic time.

Well done Rhymney!

Creative Corner

Elsie has been practising her makeup skills for the escape room activities that are taking place on Friday, and its incredible! Using only Vaseline, flour and paint. Elsie created this cut, and it looks so good and real.

Well done Elsie

Pupil Voice

Ethan from Cynon class, started his work experience sessions with "County in the Community" on Tuesday morning. He will be supporting team member Alex and County in the community instructor Sam, to deliver sessions at a local primary school to Year 6 pupils after half term. This will help him work towards his volunteering as part of "Duke of Edinburgh" Award and towards coaching.
